The o-live tree is beam-ing through the ground, where the o-lives are start-ing to sprout. The moon is shin-ing on the o-live tree, con-cen-tra-ting on the ti-ny o-lives. The moon shines on us, when it's dark and when times are dark to il-lu-min-ate the day-time night. When times are tough the moon shines on us bring-ing us light. Shine on us moon-light. Shine on us moon-light. Shine on us moon-light.
